Viola Fair '07

The Minnesota Viola Society will host its third annual violafair event:

Featuring Michael Kimber

ViolaFair '07 will be held on Sunday afternoon, February 11th, at Sundin Hall on the campus of Hamline University in St. Paul from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The program will include guest violist/composer, Michael Kimber, who will present a lecture/demonstration on his own compositions for solo viola and viola ensembles. Of course, refreshments will be served!

Members of the Minnesota Viola Society will be admitted to this event for free. Non-members will be charged $10 for this event, which includes $8 for an annual membership to the Minnesota Viola Society. (How's that for a deal?)

So put on your calendar:

Viola Fair '07
Sunday, February 11th
1:00 to 4:30
Hamline University
Sundin Hall

Location: Sundin Hall is one block east of Snelling Ave. in St. Paul and one mile north of I-94

Sundin Hall address: 1531 Hewitt Ave., St. Paul, 55104

More directions are available at www.hamline.edu/sundin

Help us to spread the word by copying this invitation to anyone who would enjoy an afternoon of fun presentations and viola talk. All are invited...not just violists. So teachers—bring your students, students—bring your teachers! Violists—bring your neighbors and friends!

Address questions to: info@minnesotaviolasociety.org or check the MVS web site for more information about membership and other events: www.minnesotaviolasociety.org.

We look forward to seeing you at the Viola Fair!
